CONTEMPORARY COAST

17 JULY-24 AUGUST

Artist Paul Wadsworth has been on a residency in Whitstable @ Caxton Contemporary during the BIENNALE FESTIVAL, working on the Kent Coastline for the first time.

'Contemporary Coast' previews several of these new works. These paintings will become part of a major contemporary landscape exhibition of Pauls' 'Whitstable' work, @ CAXTON CONTEMPORARY, this time next year.

Gallery owner/artist Wendy Croft says:

' My ethos behind Caxton Contemporary, is not only to exhibit the best of Contemporary works, but to provide a venue where artists can come and work in Whitstables' inspiring environment. '.....to create a living/working arts space, and encourage dialogue between artists around the country by bringing their work together in Whitstable.'

....."I like the idea, that you really don't know what work may come out of the experience. It gives a bit of an edge to my role in putting the shows together."

CONTEMPORARY COAST

Contemporary Coast is a mixed media show- a new look at the edge- showing work by established artists, Amanda Thompson, Paul Wadsworth, Print makers, Caroline Underwood, Jane Human, Trevor Price and Colin Moore and local artists Estelle Jourd and Marie-Claire Smith but also for the first time, the gallery will showcase work by emerging new talent...Philippa Russell, Sarah Webster, Quinton Winter, Rachel Jeffries & Pat Wilson.

...." I am interested in actively encouraging graduating and early career artists by giving them a chance to show and develop their work in a professional gallery environment"

Contemporary Coast runs throughout the Whitstable Oyster Festival and continues until the 24th August.
